Chad Bratzke, of the Indianapolis Colts, with Trish Fitzgerald, Sarasota Sports Foundation

+ Driving force

Chad Bratzke, of the Indianapolis Colts, showed off his playful (and really, really tall) side on the green with Sarasota Sports Foundation Executive Director Trish Fitzgerald, after he smashed his ball with Tiger-esque club-head speed and exclaimed, "Quarterbacks are much easier to hit than these little things."

The Sarasota Sports Foundation held its third annual Celebrity Gala and Golf Tournament for abused, neglected and abandoned children, Nov. 16 and 17 at the Longboat Key Club and Resort. Presented by Stanford Group Co., event highlights included a golf clinic by Jim Thorpe and "Rip and Grip" with John Daly for all players.

Look for gala photos in next week's Black Tie section.
