

Black Tie | A & E

RED CARPET
Sarasota Sports
Foundation debuted
a new name and lots of celebs. Page 3B

ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT
SEE PAGE 7B
No hobbyists here
The American Craft Show features
200 'fine craft' artists' novelties.

Camera Ready
View snapshots from this week's events.
Pages 4 and 5B

+ The name game

The Sarasota Sports Foundation is obviously into competitive sports, especially golf and tennis, because those two sports are the theme of its two events —

The Celebrity Golf Classic and Celebrity Pro-Tennis Event. Well now they're playing a new game — the name game. SSF has officially changed its name to the All-Star Children's Foundation.

Third annual Celebrity Gala

Photos by Stephanie Finnan

Date: Friday, Nov. 16

Place: Longboat Key Club and Resort

Chairs: D. Scott Libertore and Matt Drews

Benefiting: The All-Star Children's Foundation/Sarasota Sports Foundation

Red-carpet evening: The Longboat Key Club and Resort rolled out the red carpet for sports-and-media celebrities at Sarasota Sports Foundation's annual Celebrity Gala. The gala served as a kick-off to the celebrity golf tournament the following day, as well as a platform to unveil the foundation's new name, The All-Star Children's Foundation.

cameraready

- 1 Golf great Jöhn Daly and Chuck Vollmer
- 2 Joe and Sue Rasset
- 3 Kelly and John McFadden
- 4 Alan Guttridge and Sharon Bankert with Linda and Don Fraser
- 5 Gary Prince, Brian Reynolds and Carl Dimartini

